30 years. Quick to tell a story or a local anecdote, Andre's passion for the ocean and the people who enjoy it is what keeps customers returning year after year. "Everyday is another adventure, a chance to learn something new."

A Pennsylvania native, Jennifer Kerr worked as an automobile sales consultant and real estate agent in 2006. Jen and her husband Chris left the chilly Northeast and transplanted to Ft. Lauderdale, where they both began careers as PADI SCUBA instructors. They have since been living the dive life in Key Largo, Florida and Oahu, Hawaii. Jen says that as soon as she arrived to visit St. Thomas in September, 2009, she knew she would be soon calling it home. In October Jen and Chris made the jump to St. Thomas with their two rescued bulldogs.

the US and Japan as a U.S. Army brat before settling in Hershey, Pennsylvania. There he met his wife Jen and began a new adventure moving around the world again. In 2006 he became a PADI SCUBA instructor and in 2008 he became a U.S. Coast Guard -certified 50-ton Boat Captain. When he and Jen first visited in September 2009, he thought that St. Thomas was exactly what he was looking for in a place to settle down and call home.

Allen is a captain on Lett's Dive.

John Korkosv first came to St.

John was a root canal dentist in upstate New York. His current schedule has him spending a few months in St. Thomas teaching and leading dives, a few months sailing in upstate New York, a couple months skiing and enjoying the beauty of winter, a few weeks hunting in the Catskills and returning to St. Thomas to start another year(what a retirement!).

Jimi is the newest member of the St. Thomas Diving Club family. Jimi has a great passion for teaching and loves to take underwater photographs.

Doug is the other half of the "Doug and Tejo" team. He came to St. Thomas Diving Club a year ago and was teaching scuba with us a year later. Doug is a PADI IDC Staff Instructor who, after sixteen years experience training divers, thirteen years experience helping to train instructors, thousands of dives in the beautiful St. Thomas waters, the gain of a lovely wife and the loss of a head of hair, (rendering him the Uncle Fester of the Sea), still doesn't have a dive site named after him.

Pam, with a proven track record in the dive industry. Pam has trained many of the dive store owners, managers and instructors in the U.S.V.I. Pam was formerly on staff at the PADI International College in Santa Ana, CA., and has been appointed by PADI as District Course Director and IE Coordinator for the USVI since 1989. Pam loves to eat and be petted.
